“ Uncle Marvin I am going to be lost when it comes to cows.. You had the best eye when it came to picking out cows. You became our second dad when mine passed away. I know you and moma and Uncle Doug and daddy are having the best time in heaven catching up. Rest in peace because you don't have to suffer no more.

“ I had the privilege of having Marvin (aka Pop) as my father in law for 18 years. We will love and miss him dearly. His absence in our home has created a huge void not only in our home but our hearts.
