“ Mary Octavia was a beautiful person, inside and out. Just saying her name makes us smile. What a JOY to have known her! We truly loved Mary Octavia and will miss her immensely, both at church and in our community. She had a tremendous faith, was loads of fun, and loved her family to the moon and back. (It was so obvious!) Dear family: You do not grieve alone, for we, too, will miss her so, so much. Until that wonderful day when we'll see her again, may God bless and sustain you each and every one is our prayer, Mike and Teresa Shirley, Bowersville

“ Susan, Lem, and family, The Sayer family is sorry for your loss. Mrs. Mary was such a sweet southern lady. Her charm and love was evident everytime we saw her. She was such a friendly and thoughtful person. Her memory will live on and on in hearts and minds of those in Bowersville, as well as the surrounding towns.
