“Prayers for Wendell and family during this sad time. Mary was such a loving and kind lady. She will be missed by all the family (both near and far) and the neighborhood and church. May God place His healing hands upon you all to help you through the coming days. Love to all from your NC family members.”

“We are deeply saddened to hear of Mary's passing. I heard only moments ago after passing your home & visiting mom. While mom is tremendously sad, she is sharing wonderful memories of the times you four had together. Eating lobster up North and traveling throughout the south- what a wonderful friend Mary was to my mom & dad. You and your family are in my prayers.”

“ Wendell: We are very saddened to hear of Mary's death. Although I did not know her (or you) that well, I have heard a lot of good things about you two. I am the daughter of Chandler and "Bill " Bennett, and the niece of Hale, Warren, Jr., and Millard Bradley - all New Franklin folk. I grew up in New Franklin Christian Church. When Warren, Jr.'s daughter, Donna, was expecting her first child, I gave a baby shower for her. Mary came to my house for that shower. I believe that you and Mary were great friends of Warren and Anna. And, I thank you for your friendship to them. Please know that you and your family are in our prayers. May the Good Lord comfort and sustain you until you are reunited in Heaven one day. With our sympathy and prayers, Teresa and Mike Shirley, Bowersville
