“ I'm truly sorry, to hear of Maudell's passing. I was blessed to have know her and you her family. I remember at Christmas when I brought her gift and placed it under the tree. Hidden I thought. I called to check on Maudell, she said I know it's a box of candy you put under the tree for me, I could tell by her speech she was smiling. I said I thought it was hidden. She laughed and said you did? We did have some wonderful times. May the hand of the Lord comfort each of you. She Loved Her Family. And Thoes Grandson's William & Walker.
