“ I had the privilege of being Melvin’s pastor for nearly 9 years. He loved the Lord, his church, and his family. I had tried calling him recently but got no answer. Thought of him often. He will be missed. God speed, my Friend

Melvin was a very nice man. He helped my aunt, Jewell Adams of Royston, with many household chores prior to her death in 2000. He was good to her and our family appreciated him. We always stopped to see him when we in Royston for our family reunion.
