“ “Little Joyce” as I always lovingly called her was a very special person. Although it was when I was younger when I knew her, I always kept up with her on FaceBook. She was always so proud of her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and her love for God and her Church – Bowman Baptist church. I remember when she married and life went on, they moved but I did get to see the children when they were little. I know it has been a hard and sad few weeks for all of you and just know that I’m praying for you all.

“ My sincere condolences to the entire McDowell family and Joyce's family at Bowman Baptist Church. I only had the pleasure of meeting Joyce just last year. I admired her feistiness and her strong faith. Even though I really didn't know her, I do know she was a very caring and very giving lady. She loved her family. She so loved and was so proud of her grandchildren and great grandchildren. I know the past few weeks have been very difficult and sad times for your entire family but try to find comfort in all the wonderful memories. May you rest in peach Joyce,

“ Ms. Joyce was such a sweet memory of my childhood. I spent many days at her house with her children. She was always a gracious lady. I’m so sorry for her family but I know she has received her reward in Heaven now.
