

Mr. Norman Holley

July 2, 1955 - November 9, 2025

Norman Holley, 70, of Royston, GA passed away on Sunday, November 9, 2025, at his home surrounded by his family and his dogs, after an extended illness.

Norman was born on July 2, 1955, in Augusta, GA, raised in North Augusta, SC, son of the late Charles Hinton Holley and the late Martha Miller Holley. He earned his Mechanical Engineering degree from Clemson University. After working in construction, he began H&M Construction Co., followed by Mini Tec, LLC. With a need for speed, Norman raced go carts, flew airplanes, rode motorcycles, and created a business that made Mini Coopers and Miatas faster.

He had a zest for living life to the fastest and fullest. He was passionate about good food, good cooking, good times, and never was he without a good dog by his side. Once his granddaughters were born, he became “Big Daddy” to his family, always the biggest life in any room. He was a loyal Clemson Tiger fan until the end.

Survivors include his wife of 47 years, Terri Martin Holley; daughter and son-in-law, Meghan and BJ Hudson; granddaughters, Hadleigh and Rowen; sister, Vickie Lowe; and several nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews.

A celebration of life for Norman will be held at a later date to be determined.
During other times, the family will be at the home.

Pruitt Funeral Home in Royston, GA is in charge of arrangements.

“ This is both sad and shocking....we met Norman and Terri at Clemson when Norman and I were students and our wives worked in the Ag Econ department. I remember the tin cans they lived in at Clemson. Its been many years since we last saw both Terri and Norman....Norman and i are the same age so its humbling to hear this news. Peace to you Terri and the rest of your family. Steve and Teri Felch

“ I've known Norman since the 9th grade. We played football together through the years. I always looked forward to seeing him at the reunions. He was a great friend who would give you the shirt off his back. I will miss him.

“ Terri, I’m sorry to hear of Norman’s passing!
May God wrap his loving arms around each of you and draw you close to him. Cling tight to those precious memories and find comfort in knowing one day soon we will all be reunited with our loved ones that’s already made it to their Heavenly home and what a day of rejoicing that will be.
