“ Beth, so sorry for the home going of your mom. All the memories of Pat are of her giving and doing for others. She lived a selfless life living only for others. What a great legacy to leave. I wish I could be there today like you were here for me when my mom passed. Please know, though we rarely get to see you, we truly love you and Melanie and Jennifer and Mike. We will pray tonight as you are at the viewing and tomorrow as you have the funeral.

“ Miss Pat was our administrative assistant when I was the chairman of the board for the Madison County Chamber of Commerce. She knew everyone and everything. Often it was Pat that kept the wheels from falling off when things got hectic. She was a sweet lady and will be missed by all who knew her. Rest well, my friend.
