“ It is with a heavy heart that I type this. We send prayers to Peggy's family (Doug her husband, her babies, her grandbabies, her mother Joyce McAdams-McPherson, her brothers & her sister and to all who loved & cared for her. You will always be loved and missed Peggy.

Poem for Peggy:

Release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love and you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I travel alone.

So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for awhile that we must be apart, so bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on.

So if you need me call me and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near, and if you listen with your heart, you'll here all my love around you soft and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and say welcome home.

Peggy
