“ If you were good at deer hunting, he would call you "Killer". I met Pete at an early age attending Bluestone Baptist Church, and even rode his bus everyday from North Madison Middle School to Danielsville Elementary where I would change to another bus to go home. It was very reassuring to me as a young boy to know the person driving the bus! Pete was a great and immeasurable influence on my life. Rest in Peace, Pete! You will be greatly missed!

Fond memories of Pete, Elaine, Lynn and Cindy go back to my childhood and times spent at Aunt Nell and Uncle Dub's. I am so blessed that my grandparents and their siblings and extended families welcomed this south GA boy into their homes and lives - indeed, these memories are PRECIOUS! Prayers all around, Joey.
