“ I remember Mr. Reese, as I would call him, at Brown Memorial when my mom was there. He was a bit like my mom-spicy yet kind and considerate, not shy. He would come by the table where my my mom and some ladies were sitting and make them laugh with some funny remarks. Then he would walk on to another table and bring a chuckle to that group. As I write this post it's raining outside, so are the hearts that knew him. Love you, Mr Reese.
