“ Revonda was much more dear to me than a mother-in-law, she was more like a mom to me. She filled that void after losing my mother at an early age. We always had the best time, shopping, we laughed a lot, shared a lot and always had to make that stop to eat at Toco Bell before coming home. Other memories were our Sunday dinners; we would hurry home after church and finish up dinner what she had started before church. Lets don't forget those grand desserts... chocolate pies, fried apple pies and pound cakes! She always amazed me how quick she could "whip up" those desserts and of course all were made from scratch! When she would visit with us we would all gather on the back poarch, rock awhile while enjoying conversation, flowers and the humming birds. Although our hearts aches, we know she is rejoicing with Cyrus and loved ones. This does bring some comfort, until we meet again "Gran Gran". We love ❤️ you Kirby, Juanita and family.

“ *Our Aunt Don was a grand lady!!!
I have endless memories of her generosity and kindness. She and Uncle Cyrus stepped up for me and my brother when our mother was in poor health.
She meant the world to not only me but my entire family, especially Addison, our daughter.
Aunt Don would spend countless hours teaching Addison how to sew and make beautiful crafts. I still use log cabin syrup, crest tooth paste and make sweet tea the way she did.
I encourage anyone reading this to go to proverbs and read the scripture that describes a virtuous woman. In doing so, you will have a more clear picture, than I can describe here with this brief inscription, the true identity of my Aunt Don!
I have thanked her many times for her love towards me and my family and I proudly do so publicly here. I love you Aunt Don!!!

Revonda was my aunt and I loved her dearly. She was such a stylish lady who was kind and humorous and adored her family. She was my favorite outside my immediate family. She will be missed so much. My blessings to her 'boys'.
