“Mrs. Grace was like a second mom to me. A lady who I have known all of my life and never did she change. She was what you could say was the same yesterday and would be the same tomorrow. She loved simple things, her flowers and friends, were always what she took pleasure in. Today, she rests along side of her best friend and husband, who she lost to cancer years past. I learned to love this lady through my mother, who was very close to her and they were friends up until mom's death. I shall miss her, yet hope to see her again when life has ended. Love you Ms. Grace.

“I am so sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you let God's Word comfort you when it reads, "If a man dies can he live again? ...You will call, and I myself shall answer you. You will long for the work of your hands." {Job 14:14, 15}. God will have a longing to resurrect our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death.
