“ We are so very sorry for your tragic loss. Our prayers and thoughts are with the entire family during these very difficult days and we will continue to pray for you in the days ahead. May God wrap his arms around you and give you comfort and assurance that you will see your loved one some day. Rusty was certainly a blessing in your lives and you will always have the precious memories to recall when special occasions bring them to mind. He will be a special guardian angel to each family member in a special way in times of need. We don't understand why God allows these tragedies to occur in young lives and no one can understand the pain you are feeling at this moment - only God. May God bless each of you and bring peace and comfort as you grieve for your loved one. We will continue to pray for the whole family and we extend our deepest sympathy.
