

Ms. Sandra Gail Triplett

May 21, 1969 - May 31, 2026

Sandra Gail Triplett, known to everyone who loved her simply as Sandy, passed away on Sunday, May 31, 2026, after a brief illness. She was 57 years old and called Walnut Grove, Georgia home.

Sandy lived life on her own terms, and she wouldn't have had it any other way. She was the kind of woman who said exactly what she meant whether you were ready to hear it or not, and her honesty was one of the many things that made her unforgettable. She had a gift for making people feel seen, often showing up with flowers she'd hunted down at a bargain price, because loving people generously and spending wisely were never mutually exclusive in Sandy's world. She was, in the truest sense, a woman who thought of others first.

A lover of the outdoors, Sandy found peace and joy in nature's simple offerings. And if the open road was calling, she answered it behind the wheel of her stick shift truck, affectionately nicknamed her "poor girl's Porsche" with the windows down and not a care in the world.

Sandy's survived by her parents, Floyd and Marolyn Triplett; her sister, Marie Triplett; her brother, Tiger Triplett; her niece, Maddison Triplett, and Maddison's fiancé, Jacob Sherry; and Brooklee Hargrove, a cherished young soul whom Sandy took under her wing and loved as her own.

She leaves behind a hole that no bargain bouquet could ever fill but also a legacy of candor and generosity, and the kind of laughter that lingers long after someone is gone. Sandy, you were one of a kind. And we knew it every single day.
