“ There is a quote, "When a red bird appears, and angel is near". I was in my yard on the morning of Thursday, January 26, 2023 and a beautiful red bird landed on a limb near me and began to chirp a melody toward me. It was that afternoon I learned Sharon Fowler Brown had passed the day before, and I felt that I had experienced the presence of one of God's newest angels in my yard that morning. Sharon had a compassionate love for her faith, family and friends throughout her life. She and I grew up and went through elementary and high school together in Royston. Her warm and radiant smile was extended to everyone. We are all a better person for having known Sharon. My sincere condolences are extended to her family at this time of loss.

I will never forget the laughter we shared as well as your beautiful smile. I'm blessed to have had the opportunity to be in your life for a short time and you made a positive significance in my life! Thank you for being kind to me and I'll never forget the time we spent together. You always had such a sweet spirit about you and a caring heart for others. I'll miss you my friend and I'll miss hearing you go home before it gets dark motormouth 😊. I usually don't talk much but you made talking easy for me. See you later in a much better place and I know you are rejoicing in heaven surrounded by loved ones gone before you with a new body and mind. Love you girl!
