“ My fondest memory of Shirley was long ago, I must have been about 10 years old. Some passed away in the Hall family, my Aunt Irene asked Mother to keep Shirley for them to attend the funeral. My Daddy worked evening shift (4-12), he smoked, he had gotten a little ash tray somewhere that looked just a iron skillet, Mother had washed it for Shirley to play with. Daddy had lay down on the sofa to take a nap before going to work, Shirley started talking to him, he did not answer him, she took the little skillet and hit him on the forehead with it. She wanted him to talk to her. Daddy told that story until the day he passed away. We all loved Shirley. She is Home with Irene, Lonzo, and Jean now, but the one who loved her most, Emily, is here on earth., missing her loss. I love you Emily.
