“ Oh Sid

My dear sweet friend. I will miss your many everyday phonecalls. You always made me smile and laugh. You touched so many lives with your upbeat spirit. I wish I had been there when you left this earth and was holding your hand. I was too far away. You were one of the kindest men that I had ever met. I met you as a patient in home health and fell in love with you then. You always had an encouraging word.. I will never forget how much you loved Pendleton and your cottage and how I could always count on you. Go be with the Lord and your sweet Momma now until we meet again.. Rest In Peace my precious friend I miss you already.. WORD..

I remember the last time we played together, it was in Ellijay Georgia with the Walker Twins. As usual, you were in good spirits and always amazed everyone with your talent and abilities, I have played from coast to coast and never saw or heard anyone that played with the touch and feeling you could. There is an empty place in my heart, and a tear in my eyes just knowing I won't see you again on this earth, or hear the sound of your picking, ut WILL NEVER forget you or your guitar genius, Brother I will see you again, say hello to mama], I love you brother !

I will miss our phone conversations. I remember coming to see you and your band play back when we lived in Forest Park. All the family get together at Granny and Papa's house when you and Uncle Jiggs would play out on the front porch and Papa would get up and buck dance. Give Granny, Papa, and Linda a big hug from me. Love you much.
