“ I have many wonderful memories of Stanley. All of which involved his family. From going line dancing on New Years Eve to skiing in Boone N.C. (when Brittany learned to snow ski). His actions shows he loves his family more than anything. He was always talking about Linda or the girls: telling everyone how proud he was of them or the mishaps the girls had gotten into, always with a smile!
Linda, Kristy and Brittany- I know this is a hard time for you, but always, always remember that Stanley will forever be with you in your heart and is watching over you wherever you are on your lives journey. Rest in Peace my friend, until we boot scoot again'

“ We are very saddened to hear of Stanley's death. He was a good person...we shall always remember that we purchased our first refrigerator from Stanley (when we married back in the old days - 1982!). May God comfort and send His peace to you, his family, for you do not grieve alone...we, too, will miss Stanley Brooks. Mike and Teresa Shirley, Bowersville
