“ I knew Tamara since the late 1990's, but only online. It was our love of figure skating that brought us together as friends, and our love of animals that kept us together. We were in contact almost every day for the nearly 15 years we knew each other.

I knew she was ill for several weeks but could not convince her to go to the doctor. This will haunt me forever. I wish I lived closer and could have helped her.

God bless all who are missing her now. I pray that all her pets will find good homes, and that she will rest in peace.
