“ To Sylvia, Sherry, Patti, and family, friends and loved ones of Terry: My condolences to each of you. I didn't know him personally, but felt like I did, because I heard Sylvia and Patti speak of him often at work. I could tell he was well loved, a devoted husband, father, and grandfather, and a hard working man. May God bless and comfort each of you. God gives us the darkness so we can see the stars!

“ I was saddened to here the news that Terry had passed away. I haven't seen him in several years but we were classmates and friends at Vanna and HCHS. We spent many nights skating at dad's skating rink in Vanna and have lots of good memories of him as I know you do. My Condolences to the family in their loss but know that heaven is a little brighter today.
