“ Tom Marsh was the exact example of what a true father embodies. He was a man who loved his only daughter above all others. When he got divorced and was given full custody of his daughter he lived only for her until she was out of the house. Her well being and happiness was his only utmost concern and he only married the love of his life, Anne, when Shawn had left his home to start her own life. He was one of the most hardworking men I have known. He was a tile man and artist. His work will stand the test of time. I know Shawn appreciates his talent every time she sees his work in her kitchen. Tom's hard-work saw Shawn through her life: High school, A BBA at the University of Georgia and ultimately her Masters from UGA. He supported her through all of that. Shawn's daughters made Tom a grandfather and what joy Cassidy and Caroline brought him. So many of the Marsh Family have gone before Tom. What a great homecoming Tom will have with everyone in heaven that has preceded before him. Please grant peace to Shawn (Harrington) and Anne (Marsh) during his homecoming on Monday. A day we will come together to honor and celebrate this truly special man and a life well lived. May God continue to Bless this family as would be his wish above all else. I was truly honored to know Tom Marsh and I will forever be grateful to him for the gift of my best friend Shawn Marsh.
