“ Morris had a wonderful heart of gold! Always concerned about everyone else instead of himself. He never failed to check on those that he dearly loved whether it be by phone or a visit bringing food. He loved to make those around him laugh and everyone loved his laugh. We all love you, Morris!!! You are greatly missed now and always. ❤️

“ I ask for God’s Peace and Comfort to surround the family not only now but in the days and years ahead. The missing doesn’t stop after respects are paid; the grief becomes part of your new life.

Morris is missed already. It is rare gift in a person that everyone has the greatest, funniest memories of such a good hearted man with a great laugh.

I can’t even imagine Morris’ joyous reunion with loved ones gone on ahead of us. We love you Morris.
