“ Mr. Moon came to my rescue as a plumber 3 times, the last time being in October 2018. He was honest and fair. Sadly, I never actually met him. He went to my house, took care of things and I trusted him based on his reputation from others. My deepest sympathy to his family.

My heart is saddened by the passing of such a sweet man! Tony was always there when you had a plumbing or electrical problem! You couldn't ask for a better person!! He was always timely and we never felt like we were overcharged!! Good honest men like him are hard to find! He will definitely be missed!
