“ Tracy was a dear friend and was a very caring person. I remember she said she'd go to Easter Service with me & ended up really enjoying herself. (See photo of us there below). We shared many moments & laughed together. I considered her a good friend. When she got sick, we (several of her closest friends) thought she was taking chemo, and it's challenges, very well. We had no idea she wouldn't be coming back home, after she was hospitalized. Tracy ALWAYS would say 'Be Safe"... Anytime myself or several others were leaving out. I loved & cherished Tracy, and am Really Missing Her. Yes. She is definitely missed. RIP Tracy girl.
