

Mr. William Anderson Dilworth

August 10, 1929 - June 9, 2026

William "Anderson" Dilworth, 96, of Royston, GA, passed away peacefully at his home on June 9, 2026. Anderson was born on August 10, 1929, to the late Charlie and Lila (Yeargin) Dilworth of the Red Hill community in Franklin County. He was the oldest of three children and was preceded in death by his two sisters, Peggy Deitle and Mary Dilworth.

Anderson was married to the love of his life, Joel Whitfield, for 73 years. He received a Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from Piedmont College. After serving proudly in the United States Army, he returned to Royston to open the first Dill's Supermarket. Through the years he expanded his business to better serve the community by constructing the Dill's Shopping Centers in Royston and Lavonia, GA. For decades, he continued as owner of the current Dill's Food City IGA stores.

Anderson loved the Lord and was a very active member of Royston First United Methodist Church and Crusaders Sunday School class. For over twenty years, he served on the Board of Trustees for the Methodist Children's Home of the North Georgia Conference. His local service included Mayor of Royston and Royston City Council, Lion's Club, and Royston/Franklin Springs Chamber of Commerce. He proudly served for many years on the Board of Directors for Tri-County Bank of Royston and Pinnacle Bank. Also, he served as President of the Mountain Bank of Georgia in Hiawassee.

At the state level, Anderson served in the Georgia Legislature during Governor Ernest Vandiver's term and on Governor Zell Miller's Commission on Effectiveness and Economy in Government. He also served as director, treasurer, and president of the Georgia Grocers Association and was very active in the Georgia Food Industry Association.

He and his wife, Joel, loved sitting on their carport each Halloween passing out king-size 3Musketees bars to hundreds of children. Being a proud American, Anderson took great pride in sitting at the entrance to Dill's Food City and giving American flags to customers on Veterans Day. Affectionately known as "Daddy D," he was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He loved history, telling stories, offering advice, and was a great source of knowledge. Anderson took great pride in the friendships he made over the years as a business owner and community leader. His memory will forever remain strong for all who knew and loved him.

Anderson is survived by his wife, Joel (Whitfield) Dilworth; his children, Melody (George) Biederman of Suwanee, GA, Stan (Karen) Dilworth of Royston, GA, and Tracy (Lisa) Dilworth of Royston, GA; his grandchildren, Anna Dilworth, Claire (Thomas) Bryan, Holly (Christopher) Gamblin, Alan Dilworth, Eric (Brooke) Biederman, Jackson Dilworth, and Ashlyn Dilworth; his great-grandchildren, Maret Bryan, Sarah Bryan, and Kathryn Gamblin; and several nieces and nephews. Anderson was preceded in death by his dear sister-in-law, Jean West.

The family extends its heartfelt gratitude to the following caregivers who provided compassionate care and support during Anderson's last years: Marty Anthony, Teresa Morrison, Keetan Ravenell and Crystal Sanders.

“ I had been away on vacation and only learned of Anderson’s passing today. I grew up in Royston and the Dilworth family were my neighbors for years. Countless Wiffle ball games were won and lost in the Dilworth’s front yard and plenty of football related bruised and skinned knees were had in the open field beside their home. The Dilworth family were always fantastic neighbors and friends to my family. My family suffered quite a number of deaths during my time living there and the Dilworth family were always there with meals and consoling us during our times of need. Anderson will definitely be missed but, never forgotten, by the countless people who encountered his kindness and genuine caring for other people.

“ Thinking of all of you at this time. Mr. Dilworth and family have been such a constant in the lives of so many and so supportive of our community. I know my dad would also want to extend his heartfelt sympathy to all of you as well and would have loved to show his respect in person if he was able.

“ Mr. Dilworth hired me when I was 14 in 1974 to work at Dill’s as a bag boy. I worked here through high school and on and off during college. I’ll bet half of Royston worked here through the years! Haha! He was always fair to me, and a great friend and employer. I had many friends there including other employees and customers. All the Dilworth’s have a special place in my heart, and the world would be a much better place with people like them! Mr. Dilworth will be greatly missed!

“ Anderson hired me to be a "bag-boy" when I was 12 years old in the 6th grade. I had to get a work permit for Friday afternoon and Saturday. I worked at Dill's for 7 years through my first year in college and gradually worked in most all the departments. I had the privilege for the last 4 years to manage produce with Mr. Charlie! I learned several life lessons from Anderson and Mr. Charlie. Strong verbal skills--say what you mean and mean what you say!: You always knew If you messed up you were given instructions and taught how to correct and move on. People Oriented--you always respected all customers and assisted them building relationships in the community. Analytical skills--expected to solve problems and make decisions. Work ethic--enjoy working and taking responsibilities that created a solid future. Values of Honesty and care--both were honest in their words and actions and took care of family, employees, community, and serving the Lord each and every day. Thank you Anderson and Mr. Charlie for all of the memories. Love and prayers for the Dilworth family. Dr. Jim Starr known as "Bag-Boy" Jimmy Starr.

“ Dave and I had lunch with Mr. And Mrs. Dillworth. He remembered things about me from when I worked at Dills in Royston from 1974-1978. I did not remember some of these things until he started talking I would not have made it through college if it hadn't been for him. I appreciate everything he did for me. Lots of great memories! Prayers for the Dillworth family.

“ I first got to know Anderson in church in the early to mid nineties. I have always admired his positive nature. On Sunday mornings he would always ask if I had a good week. When leaving the church he would say, "have a good week". He was not just making conversation, he was completely serious in his wishes for me. Anderson genuinely wanted the best for everyone. His contributions to this community are so enormous we can never honor him sufficiently. His close friend Vernon Boswell went before him a short time back. They shared a very similar eyesight impairment. About Tuesday after Anderson finished checking in with Saint Peter, I can see Him and Vernon meeting on one of those shinny streets and Vernon asking, what do you think of these eyes Anderson? God Speed my friend.
